About the Fund

BMO Ultra Short-Term Bond ETF Fund is built off the success of BMO Ultra Short-Term Bond ETF. The underlying ETF holding invests in investment grade corporate bonds, and has the ability to add exposure to government bonds, high yield bonds, floating rate notes, and preferred shares, all with a term to maturity of less than one year or reset dates within one year. The portfolio is rebalanced based on the portfolio manager’s fundamental analysis, relative strength indicators, and risk adjusted yield expectations.

¹ Duration: A measure of the sensitivity of the price of a fixed income investment to a change in interest rates. Duration is expressed as number of years. The price of a bond with a longer duration would be expected to rise (fall) more than the price of a bond with lower duration when interest rates fall (rise).

² As of February 26, 2024. The portfolio holdings are subject to change without notice. They are not recommendations to buy or sell any particular security.

³ MER as of September 30, 2023.

Key Benefits of Ultra Short-Term Bonds

“Cash-Plus Vehicle”

Earn additional yield above treasury bills (T-bills) and GICs

De-risk a portfolio

Tactically or strategically move out of equities or bonds, when markets become volatile

Hedge against rising rates

Keep capital protected against inflation, while minimizing market and price volatility

No lock-up period for Interest payments

Unlike GIC's, investors do not have to hold for a certain defined time period to earn income on their investment.

Low duration

Lower interest rate sensitivity in your portfolio.
